

Please delay the vote on Broadcast Ownership. I completely disagree with the idea of one parent company owning as much media as it can pay for. This will only further monopoly of information, which in turn will degrade the American democratic process. If one or two corporations own information then they own us